

All of Estonia's laws are now available in English

[1]

A four-year project of the Ministry of Justice of Estonia to translate Estonian legislation into English has been completed. All of Estonia's laws are now available in English through the Electronic State Gazette housed and maintained by RIK. Formerly, only a limited selection of legal acts were available.

The head of department responsible for the State Gazette of the Ministry of Justice of Estonia, Mr. Jüri Heinla, said the project will help introduce the Estonian legal sphere to the outside world and will simplify international state and
